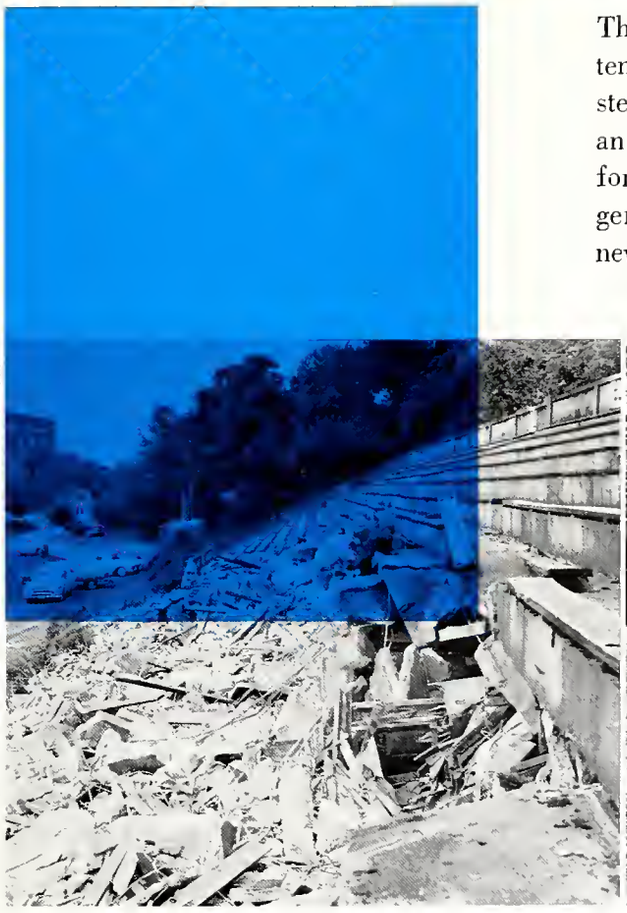
THIS IS 'SOUTHERN . . .

BIRMINGHAM-SOUTHERN COLLEGE
PRO CHRISTO ET REPUBLICA
1856

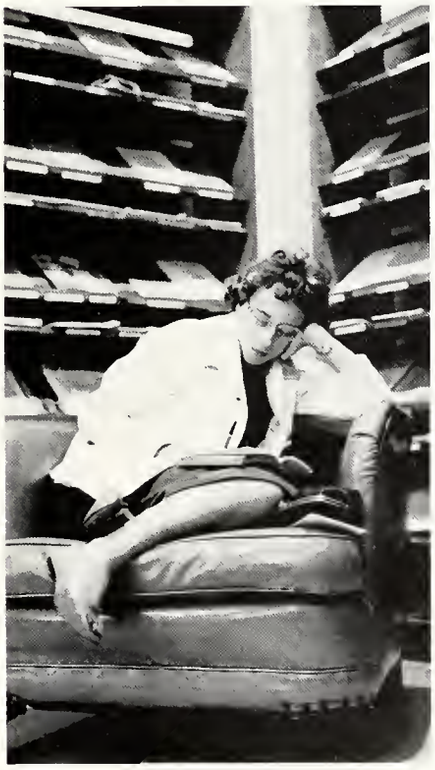
This year saw the beginning of 'Southern's ten-year expansion program. The first steps were the razing of old North Hall, an addition to Hanson, new apartments for married students, the razing of Munger Bowl stadium, and the clearing of a new athletic field.



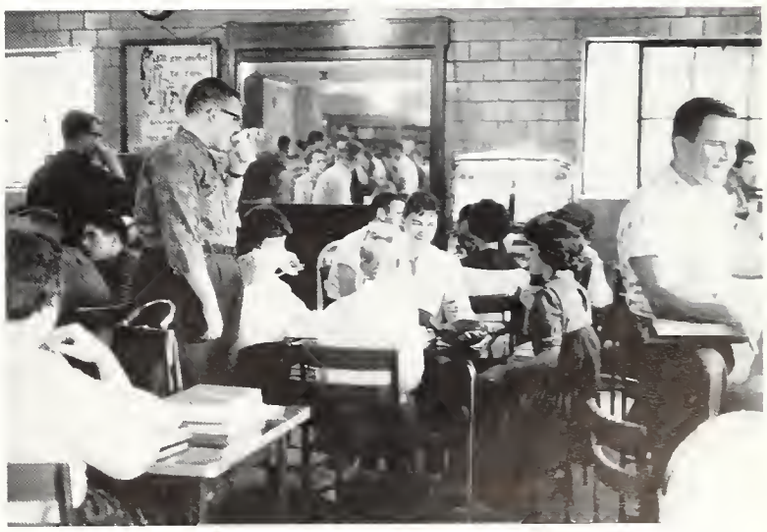
THE OLD AND THE NEW

ITS STUDENTS . . .

Bridge took the campus by storm last year, and according to these young scholars, it's here to stay.



The long hard grind and then . . .



Back to play, a la Bookstore.

ITS CAMPUS LIFE

The always-memorable Christmas Dance.

SGA did the campus a worthy service in sponsoring a TV-side party on the night of election returns.

Rush ends in smiles and the shaking of hands.

The Brothers Four gave us perhaps the only memorable night of entertainment in the history of the college.

And the old queen makes way for the new one.

The Powderpuff Bowl was a howling success.

There's always that good old 'Southern tradition—the tea for any and every occasion.

The redecoration of the Cellar was a great improvement to the campus, but in spite of all that has been done there is still one thing lacking —the proletariat.

After looking at every facet of life here on the Hilltop, we always come back to the same place. And the reason? It's just because this is 'Southern.

DR. J. RALPH JOLLY

DEDICATION

In this dynamic era in which we are living, it is necessary that we constantly evaluate and re-evaluate our society and our goals to keep pace with the changes that are taking place all around us. Those things that have proven workable and true in the past must be retained, and the outmoded must be discarded for the new discoveries of this technical age. In order to accomplish this, there must be capable leaders at every level of our governmental, educational, and social structure. We, of the Southern Accent staff, feel that Dr. J. Ralph Jolly, Dean of Students, is a leader of this calibre. He represents not only the integrity of our Southern heritage, but also the ever-questioning spirit of the new scientific age, in his search for a better way.

Because he has been a friend, a counsellor, and because of the example he has set before us, not only in his position as Dean of Students, but also in his personal life, we respectfully dedicate this 1961 edition of the Southern Accent to Dr. J. Ralph Jolly.

BEAUTIES

JUDGING

A group of the forty-four nominees at the Monday tea.

The long round of judging began on Monday with a tea in Stockham for all forty-four nominees. Here the girls met the judges who were Mrs. LaNeil Wilson, Miss Lily May Caldwell, and Mr. Everett Holley.

Each girl had an individual interview with the judges during the next days, and on Thursday the fourteen finalists were announced. This group met with the judges again on Thursday night at a banquet in their honor. Friday afternoon—rehearse.

Go get 'em, girls!!

PAGEANT FEATURES BROTHERS FOUR

The Miss Southern Accent Pageant this year, under the direction of Jack Mann, Anita Tully, and Ronnie Countryman, was the finest job of staging and showmanship in the four-year history of the pageant. The Brothers Four, nationally known recording artists, were featured entertainers. This group was brought to campus by the Student Government Association, and many consider this to be the finest night of entertainment on campus in recent years.

And it's all over.

The new queen begins her reign.

MISS SOUTHERN ACCENT

PAT ELLISOR

The title of Miss Southern Accent, one of the highest honors which a coed can receive, went this year to Miss Patricia Ellisor. Beauty, charm, poise, and the many qualities which must be a part of any Miss Southern Accent are evident in this pert miss from Selma, Alabama.

Pat is a junior majoring in Art. Aside from being active in many areas of campus life, she maintains an unusually high academic record. She is president of her sorority, Kappa Delta, and will serve next year as president of Panhellenic Council. Pat attends Southern on a Miss Alabama scholarship, and she has been featured in the beauty section of the Southern Accent for two years. Pat's talents have exhibited in the campus productions of The Boy Friend and Midsummer Night's Dream.

Pat was sponsored in the Miss Southern contest this year by Alpha Tau Omega.

The Editor

SOUTHERN ACCENT 1961

In presenting the 1961 Southern Accent to you, the staff hopes that this edition of our annual will be the beginning of a completely new concept in the production of an annual on our campus. We feel that the time has come to rethink the purpose of having an annual on this campus. It seems to us that whatever this purpose should be, it has been completely missed in the last few years. For this reason we have launched out in an entirely new direction. We feel that the Southern Accent should not only record the facts of the year's activities, but it should also express the feelings of the students concerning the campus. This is exactly what we have tried to do in this edition of our annual.

Since this approach to publishing the annual is a completely new one, we are certain to have made some mistakes. Perhaps someone or some group has been cut down just a little too much. However, we hope that the staffs and editors of the future will profit from both our ideas and our mistakes. Whether what we have done in the 1961 Southern Accent is acceptable or not can only be decided by you, the students. It is our sincere hope that you will accept this for what it is—a completely new approach to the Southern Accent—and give your help to the editors of the future in perfecting the Southern Accent into what it should be—a real college annual.

FRESHMAN CAMP . . .

Sermon on the mount

TO THE WOODS!

Fall quarter began in its usual stimulating fashion with a trek to the woods. Freshmen were instructed on how to study and how to behave at rush parties: on the revered traditions of Southern—and the history of the campus Greeks. Emphasis on scholarship was stressed by the professors and emphasis on socializing by the upperclassmen.

. . . AND SPORTS?

Studies were interrupted from time to time by a nuisance known as athletics. Greek-wise, these little study breaks provided an opportunity to practice sorority songs and exercise the vocal cords. Varsity-wise—well, all good little liberal arts schools must have an athletic program.

"TWELFTH NIGHT"

Come on, John, you can do it!

A glimpse into the world of "fine arts" was presented by the college theatre crowd in the "Twelfth Night" production. The play was suspiciously viewed by the campus and finally pronounced "good" due to the lack of anything more constructive to say.

The Physical Education Department, inspired by the holiday season, attempted to impart a damp note of cheer in the Water Ballet. It was dedicated to all "Mommies and Daddies," but most of them wished they had stayed at home. Jackie Collins directed the big splash.

SWIMMING TEAM

The newly formed Birmingham-Southern College swimming team began its first season with several home meets. A heavier schedule is planned for next year, and with a little experience Southern's swimming team will be an added attraction to varsity athletics at Southern.

In one of its most important meets Southern met the University of Alabama. Although the score of 69-29 was one-sided, Southern displayed more skill than the score indicated. Southern took three first place positions and two second spots. In the 50-yard free style, Joel Shannon brought home a first place position for Southern with a winning time of 26.5 seconds. The 200-yard individual medley was won by Southern's Jimmy Brotherton with a time of 2 minutes 25.9 seconds. Brotherton also placed first in the 100-yard butterfly with a time of one minute 17 seconds. In the 400-yard free style Bob Dowda placed second far ahead of the third place Alabama man. ALPHA CHI OMEGA

ALPHA OMEGA CHAPTER

Alpha Omega chapter of Alpha Chi Omega has had one of its most successful years since its founding on 'Southern's campus in 1926.

The year began with honors when the chapter received a three-dimensional crest, presented at the Diamond Jubilee National Convention to the chapter showing the most outstanding improvement.

The Founders' Day Banquet held with the Birmingham alumnae in October began the social year. November marked Alpha Chi's all-campus tea honoring its seventeen new Fall pledges. Ushering in the new year was the annual dinner-dance, held for members, pledges, and alumnae, while annual Spring houseparties climaxed the social calendar. Fraternity coffees were held throughout the year.

Philanthropic work included working with the Cerebral Palsy telethon in September, giving Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets to needy families, and adopting a ten-year old girl through the Foster Parents Plan.

The biannual Province Convention, held in March at the University of Alabama, highlighted Alpha Omega's 1960-61 Activities.

On the hilltop, Alpha Chis are found in MSM, BSU, Westminster Fellowship, Newman Club, Price Fellowship, College Choir, College Theater, Water Ballet, Amazons, Dorm Council, Guild Student Group of Organists, Young Artists and Student Musicians Club, Hilltop News, French Club, Southern Accent, Alpha Lambda Delta, and Phi Chi Theta. Rachael Mathis won the Birmingham Music Club voice auditions.

TAU DELTA CHAPTER

Tau Delta Chapter of AOPi started this year not only with a wonderful rush season and 18 pledges but with a feeling that this year would bring even more of the successes of the past year. Our trophy case now holds the Interfraternity Sing Trophy for the second year and the Sportsmanship Cup, which we have retired.

Summer, 1960, brought local and national fame to Teresa Rinaldi, who was chosen Miss Alabama and placed in the top ten for Miss America. Four other AOPi's also won scholarships in the Miss Alabama contest.

AOPi's excel not only in talent and beauty, but in all activities: Phi Sigma Iota, three members of Alpha Lambda Delta, three members of Triangle Club, Mortar Board, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Cheerleaders, a Favorite in the Southern Accent, staffs of The Hilltop News and Southern Accent, Secretary of Student Government, three members of Student Government, President of Women's Dorm Council, Sweetheart of PiKA, Secretary of Honor Council, P.E. Club, Senior Intramural Manager, Kappa Delta Epsilon, Secretary of Phi Chi Theta, May Court and all religious activities.

Socially, AOPi's had the annual Pledge and Initiation Banquets, Christmas Dance, Pledge Reception, All-Campus Coffee for visiting National First Vice-President and Pledge spend-the-night party.

For Philanthropy, AOPi's gave a Thanksgiving Basket, toys at Christmas to Frontier Nursing Service, a Christmas party for Elyton Village Children and "Mr. Hilltopper" show, the proceeds of which go to AOPi's national project.

KAPPA DELTA

ALPHA UPSILON CHAPTER

Alpha Upsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta began an active and spirited year with the pledging of eighteen girls during fall rush. A combination of lively campus participation and social events resulted in an outstanding year for Southern's youngest sorority.

Kappa Delta was well represented in campus activities. The presidents of Alpha Lambda Delta and Mortar Board and the Hilltop News editor wore KD shields, while other members took part in College Theatre, water ballet, college choir, and religious organizations. The sorority boasted members of honorary Phi Sigma Iota, Kappa Delta Epsilon, Amazons, and President's Scholars, and two sisters were named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. KD's also served on the Southern Accent staff, Student Life Committee, Intramural Council, Student Government Association, Panhellenic Council, and Dorm Council.

A Kappa Delta was crowned "Miss Southern Accent" with two sisters serving as favorites and three as beauties in her court.

Social highlights of the year were the annual Founders' Day Banquet, steak fry, coffees, slumber parties, song fests, and house party in the spring.

For its philanthropic project Kappa Delta entertained crippled children with seasonal parties and each week sent "Good Morning" cards for the Sunday breakfast trays of 500 University Hospital patients.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

BETA BETA CHAPTER

The Beta Beta Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega this year completed its seventy-sixth year as an active social organization at Birmingham-Southern. During the year, ATO again achieved its annual high degree of success in all areas of campus life.

Beta Beta had brothers holding roles of leadership in the Student Government Association, Honor Council, Religious Council, Ministerial Association, Westminster Fellowship, and Theta Sigma Lambda. Members of ODK included Brothers Reynolds, Richerdson, Sharpe and Smith; found in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities were Brothers Reynolds, Richardson, and Sharpe.

Athletically, ATO again captured a top position with another fine intramural football team. The Taus also fielded outstanding teams in swimming, basketball, and volleyball competition. On the varsity basketball squad, Brothers Mackin and Odum returned as first-string mainstays, with Pledge Brother Jordan in reserve.

Again the Taus were able to enjoy another year of successful and enjoyable social activity in their new home. The Fall Dance and Halloween Party in the Fall, the formal Sweetheart Dance in the Winter, and the Hawaiian Luau and Houseparty during Spring Quarter were but a few of the major social activities enjoyed during the year. Off-campus activities included a Christmas Party at the Crippled Children's Hospital and the Annual Founders' Day Banquet in the Spring. In addition, a number of informal drop-ins and pledge swaps were held through the year.

ATO upheld its high academic tradition by capturing the IFC scholarship trophy for Fall Quarter.

KAPPA ALPHA ORDER

PHI CHAPTER

Founded in 1882, Phi Chapter of Kappa Alpha Order has since that date served the campus of Birmingham Southern College. It is the oldest fraternity in continuous existence on the campus.

This year, men who wear the badge of KA serve as Senior Class officers, President of the Dorm Council, Secretary of the IFC, and are on the President's Cabinet of Student Government Association. KA's are also found on The Hilltop News Staff, on the Birmingham-Southern College basketball team, and as members of groups such as MSM and Circle K.

The social calendar of the chapter is filled year round, with such major events as the Halloween, Christmas, "Beatnik," "Rose Ball," and house parties leading the parade of events. There are also events such as the celebration of Robert E. Lee's birthday to occupy the KA's.

In Intramural sports the KA's are always a top-rated team and are usually picked to win every major sport. Every All-Star team depends on KA's for the backbone of its strength.

Also Sig Alphs served as Editor and Business Manager of the Southern Accent, and as Business Manager of the Hilltop News.

The membership of ODK includes brothers Morgan, Hearn, Mann, and Lawler. Brothers Hearn and Singleton served on the Honor Council, and brother Morgan was selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

SAE's continued to be in top contention in intramural sports by fielding strong teams in all intramural activities. In addition, five men were placed on the varsity basketball team, and SAE was well represented on the swimming and tennis teams.

The social program was especially full this year. The Horror, Western, Sweetheart, Lake, and house parties were a few of the social functions in the life of Alabama Iota.

On March 12, the first fraternity to have a house at old Southern University reached another milestone in the record being set by SAE at Birmingham-Southern College when the new dormitory wing and chapter library were dedicated.

THETA CHI

BETA XI CHAPTER

The youngest of Southern's fraternities, Beta Xi Chapter of Theta Chi, originated in 1942 as a result of the merger between Beta Kappa and Theta Chi Fraternities.

Theta Chi men held many key positions on campus this year. Jim Herren, president of the IFC; John Slaughter, President of ODK; Bo Lynn, President of the American Chemical Society; John Slaughter and Jim Herren were elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities; Eddie George was tapped into ODK; John Slaughter is on the Honor Council, and Eddie George was student representative, SGA.

Theta Chi was active in all-campus sports activity. On the social scene were such events as the Christmas Ball, "Red and White Ball," "Rebel Reunion," and many drop-in parties.

You don't have to be Phi Beta Kappa to know what this symbol stands for! To the Birmingham Southern student, it represents a proud tradition of which he is a part. Likewise, the letter "A" stencilled on cast iron pipe and tubular products also has a meaning. In short, it stands for American Cast Iron Pipe Company . . . where progress is a policy for the good of all.
